ART Miami has a rich local arts scene. Find fresh works by Jen Stark and Alvaro Iltzarbe, like A Night Over, at Carol Jazzar Contemporary Art in Miami Shores. cjazzart.com

Make this family-owned, 93-suite masterpiece that calls itself "the Art Hotel" your launchpad for Art Basel (Dec. 1-4). Owners Martin and Cricket Taplin have amassed a contemporary collection—paintings, photography, mixed media, sculpture and video art—by world-renowned artists like Massimo Vitali and Tina Dietz. If that isn't enough to inspire, step onto the balcony of your ocean front bungalow, where the electric blue Atlantic is your muse. 1671 Collins Ave, South Beach; 305-535-8088, sagamorehotel.com

THE RUBELL FAMILY COLLECTION

One of the world's largest privately owned collections is housed just 4.3 miles west. rfc.museum

FOOD Order room service from The Gallery Dining Room, where dishes—like three way ceviche ($18) and tuna crudo ($14)—look as good as they taste.

SUNGLASSES Expose your eyes to great art, not to the sun. Protect them with tony shades—like Balenciaga women's in tortoise ($425) or Thierry Lasry men's aviators ($495)—from boutique I On the District. ionthedistrict.com
